

Dear Padre,

A friend of mine took his life. He was a very staunch Catholic. His wife wanted to know if he could be buried or have a Mass in the Catholic Church.

Yes, your friend should most certainly receive a Catholic funeral and burial. “We should not despair of the eternal salvation of persons who have taken their own lives. By ways known to him alone, God can provide the opportunity for salutary repentance. The Church prays for persons who have taken their own lives” (The Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2283).

A person who is suffering with a mental illness or disorder, certainly a prerequisite for suicide, may not have the necessary mental freedom to choose something that is understood as grave or mortal. In other words, he or she does not have the necessary requirements for full and free consent of the will.

Not that long ago, suicide was often misunderstood. Thankfully, today we understand the havoc and suffering of mental illness, and that a person can be a victim, even if it might look like he or she is not. The great suffering of those who take their own lives must not be dismissed or discarded. The family members and friends of a person who suffers suicide should also not be judged but should only receive compassion and understanding. They, too, are victims, in the fullest sense of the word and in the truest understanding of what it means to be a fragile human being. ●

Embracing a Spirituality of Listening

ANN M. GARRIDO

The most treasured prayer of Jesus' people has long been and remains the Shema: “Hear O Israel, the Lord is God. The Lord is One.” Jewish spirituality is grounded not in seeing or touching or tasting, but in hearing. No one exemplifies fidelity to this way of being in the world more than Joseph, as evidenced in today's gospel. Joseph is one who listens to what God's messenger says to him and immediately acts on it. He responds to the call to flee with Mary and Jesus to Egypt. Then, he responds to the call to return home with his family to Israel. As many have noted, Joseph never speaks in Scripture, but he certainly listens, and he certainly acts on what he hears.

Christmas is perhaps the noisiest season of the year. At gatherings of family and friends with festive music in the background, it often feels as if we are shouting over one another to be heard. It is a season when it can be hard to have deep conversations, even with God. Indeed, it can be such a busy season that sometimes our regular prayer practices fall by the wayside. But, if we do not make space in our daily lives to listen, might we miss messages that are important, even urgent, for us to hear, as in the case of today's gospel? Messages that require immediate response? What would it look like to carve out a bit of silence in this holiday season, to be like Joseph and reground yourself in a spirituality of listening? ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

Young people of our time, like those of every age, are a volcano of life, energy, sentiments, and ideas. It can be seen from the wonderful things they are able to do, in so many fields. However, they also need help in order for this great wealth to grow in harmony and to overcome what...can still hinder their healthy development.

Re: Province Decree on the Offerings and on the intentions of the Holy Masses

Dear Fathers,

At a meeting of the Presbyteral Council on May 13, 2025, the question was raised as to the possibility and the feasibility of increasing the offerings of the faithful for celebration of the Eucharist for their intentions. It was the consensus of the Council that I should raise the question of Mass Offerings on the Province level.

Following our Council discussion, I raised the question at our monthly province meeting. At that time, the other Bishops of Iowa requested additional time to consult with their own Presbyteral Councils.

At a meeting of the Province on October 20, 2025, the four bishops of Iowa agreed on raising the suggested offerings from $5 per intention to $10. Archbishop Zinkula, Metropolitan of the Province of Dubuque, issued a decree on November 19, 2025 (Decree enclosed).

With the promulgation of this decree, I encourage all priests to re-acquaint themselves with the law that governs Mass offerings, in particular Canon law. One should also reacquaint themselves regarding the acceptance of “Collective Offerings,” i.e. Mos iugiter obtinuit (February 22, 1991) and Sulla disciplina delle intenzione delle Sante Messe (April 13, 2025).

This decree authorizes that after January 1, 2026, the suggested Mass Offering will rise from $5 to $10. That being said, any Mass offerings already accepted at the previous suggested donation of $5 must be fulfilled at that offering level.

Please call the chancery if you need any further clarification.

Fraternally,

Most Rev. Dennis G. Walsh
Bishop of Davenport
